

Proceedings of the 2015 PASS Plenary Session

Proceedings of the 2015 Plenary Session
Human Trafficking: Issues Beyond Criminalization
17-21 April 2015
Vatican City, 2016
E-Pub ahead of print

Address to the Participants in the Plenary Session of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences
Pope Francis

Address to Pope Francis
President Margaret Archer

Word of Welcome
President Margaret Archer

Origins of the Magisterium on Human Dignity
H.E. Msgr. Roland Minnerath

Argentina: Successes, Difficulties and Problems Still Confronted in Reducing Prostitution and Forced Labour
Gustavo Vera

The Limitations of Necessary Criminalization
Kevin Hyland, UK independent anti-Slavery commissioner

No Longer Slaves, but Brothers and Sisters
Flaminia Giovanelli

The Social Etiology of Human Trafficking, Their Global Distribution and Differences. Setting the Scene
Kristiina Kangaspunta, UNODC

The Social Etiology of Human Trafficking: How Poverty and Cultural Practices Facilitate Trafficking
Alexis A. Aronowitz, PhD, Senior Lecturer criminology, University College Utrecht

How Can Data Collection Help Victims of Modern Slavery?
Michaëlle de Cock

The Programme of Pope Francis According to the Gospel: the Church as Intrinsically a Social Movement to Make the Last First
H.E. Msgr. Marcelo Sánchez Sorondo

The ILO; Successes, Difficulties and Problems in Reducing Forced Labour in Different Parts of the World
Beate Andrees

Legal and Policy Framework of the EU Relating to Criminalisation, Prevention and Demand Reduction
Myria Vassiliadou

The Role of the UN and its Sustainable Development Goals in Seeking to Reduce/Eliminate Human Trafficking by 2020

Jeffrey Sachs

A UK Perspective on Human Trafficking: Aspects of the Modern Slavery Act 2015

John McEldowney

An Evaluation of the Place of Repatriation in French Law Dealing with Trafficked Persons

Yves Charpenel

Lessons from two Decades of Casework: How to Restore Survivors and Communities to Safety and Strength

Gary Haugen

Difficulties and Successful Practices in Facilitating a New Life for Persons Trafficked to Great Britain

Kate Garbers

Difficulties and Successful Practices in Facilitating a New Life for Persons Trafficked to Italy

Giovanni Ramonda

The Challenge of Resettling those who Have Been Trafficked, with Special Reference to Nigeria

Eugenia Bonetti

Difficulties and Successful Practices in Facilitating a New Life for Persons Trafficked within Australasia

Sallie Yea

Repatriation and Trafficked Workers in the Philippines and Filipinos Trafficked to Work in Other Countries

Maruja Asis

Scars – Ruined Lives and Deaths of Kidney Trafficking Victims

Nancy Scheper-Hughes

Trafficking of Human Organs in India

Mathew Abraham

How the Global Economy Fosters Human Trafficking

Stefano Zamagni

Normative Findings from the Evaluation Report of the Norwegian Sex Buying Act

Steiner Strøm

A Liberal Profession? The Norwegian Debate About the "Sex Buying Act"

Janne Matlary

How Does Social Normativity Change and Can It Be Brought to Foster the Common Good?

Pierpaolo Donati

How to Bring About Normative Change in the Demand for Trafficked Persons

Douglas Porpora

PANEL

Neo-Cannibalism, Organ Theft, and Military-Biomedical Necropolitics

Nancy Scheper-Hughes

The "Liberanos Project"

Pierre Morel